Fermented in stainless steel and aged in French barriques (70% new) for seven months, the 2018 Chardonnay First Reserve is a full-bodied, intense, ripe, dense and juicy-elegant wine with fine acidity, good texture and lingering salinity. The finish is intensely fruity yet fine and elegant, with good balance and stimulating length. After a very sunny summer with heavy rainfalls at the right time, the grapes reached an extraordinary ripeness and were picked at the end of August. Tasted in February 2020.
